

Western Spirit

SCOTTSDALE'S MUSEUM OF THE WEST

Exploring Northern Arizona: Spring 2017 April 19-21

Explore more of the West through cultural travel with Scottsdale's Museum of the West! Our exclusive members-only trips expand your experience with art beyond our galleries, taking you into the private studios of some of today's most influential western artists.

The itineraries focus on enriching activities, and allow you to experience behind-the-scenes opportunities that enhance your understanding of artistic inspiration, process, and creativity. Each studio tour, artist talk, and museum visit is designed to personally connect you with western art and artists.

Tentative Itinerary

DAY 1 | Wednesday, April 19 > Prescott

Morning departure from Scottsdale's Museum of the West

Artist studio #1 Doug Hyde, sculptor

Lunch with John Coleman

Artist studio #2 John Coleman, CAA sculptor/painter

Studio tour #3 Erik Petersen, artist

Dinner & discussion with CAA sculptor Bill Nebeker at the Phippen Museum

DAY 2 | Thursday, April 20 > Sedona

Breakfast at hotel

Studio tour #4 Ken Rowe, wildlife sculptor

Lunch with Ken Rowe

Studio tour #5 Curt Walters, landscape artist

Dinner in Flagstaff

DAY 3 | Friday, April 21 > Flagstaff

Breakfast at hotel

Museum of Northern Arizona

Lunch & Learn with Director Carrie Heinonen and

Dr. David Gillette, Colbert Curator of Vertebrate Paleontology

Studio tour #6 Shonto Begay, Navajo painter/environmentalist

Return to Scottsdale's Museum of the West

This exclusive travel benefit is available to members at the Supporting Member level and above. Reservations are limited. Trip includes private transportation to all destinations, accommodations, meals, and museum admissions. Itinerary is subject to change.

Reservations will be guaranteed based upon the return date of the registration form and receipt of payment.

Cost per person is $950.00, registration and nonrefundable payment are due by January 9, 2017.

For information and booking contact Kat MacDonald, Special Assistant to the Director, at (480) 686-9539, ext. 217.